

Please do NOT change FCC policies limiting the number of stations a single entity can own. Your policies that have promoted "competition, diversity and localism" are sound American values and essential for a healthy democracy.